

Wind

*A breezy summer wind floats across the land like a warm hug.
It envelops and surrounds us with the presence of a world that does not threaten or harm, and reminds us of the gentle but awesome force of the Creator.*

